

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GOOD STUDENT

Paraphrase of “The Good Student” By Haki Madhubuti

The Good Student:

- can learn anything, anyplace and anytime.
- is committed to acquiring knowledge and skills.
- develops good study habits and is always willing to learn.
- asks questions and challenges teachers to teach all the knowledge they have.
- is always respectful to the teacher.
- lives by a positive and progressive value system.
- knows that knowledge without understanding and practical application is useless.
- knows that to move from purpose to reality requires work, study, creativity and productivity.
- is a good example for the younger brothers and sisters to follow.
- knows that the student is the nation becoming.
